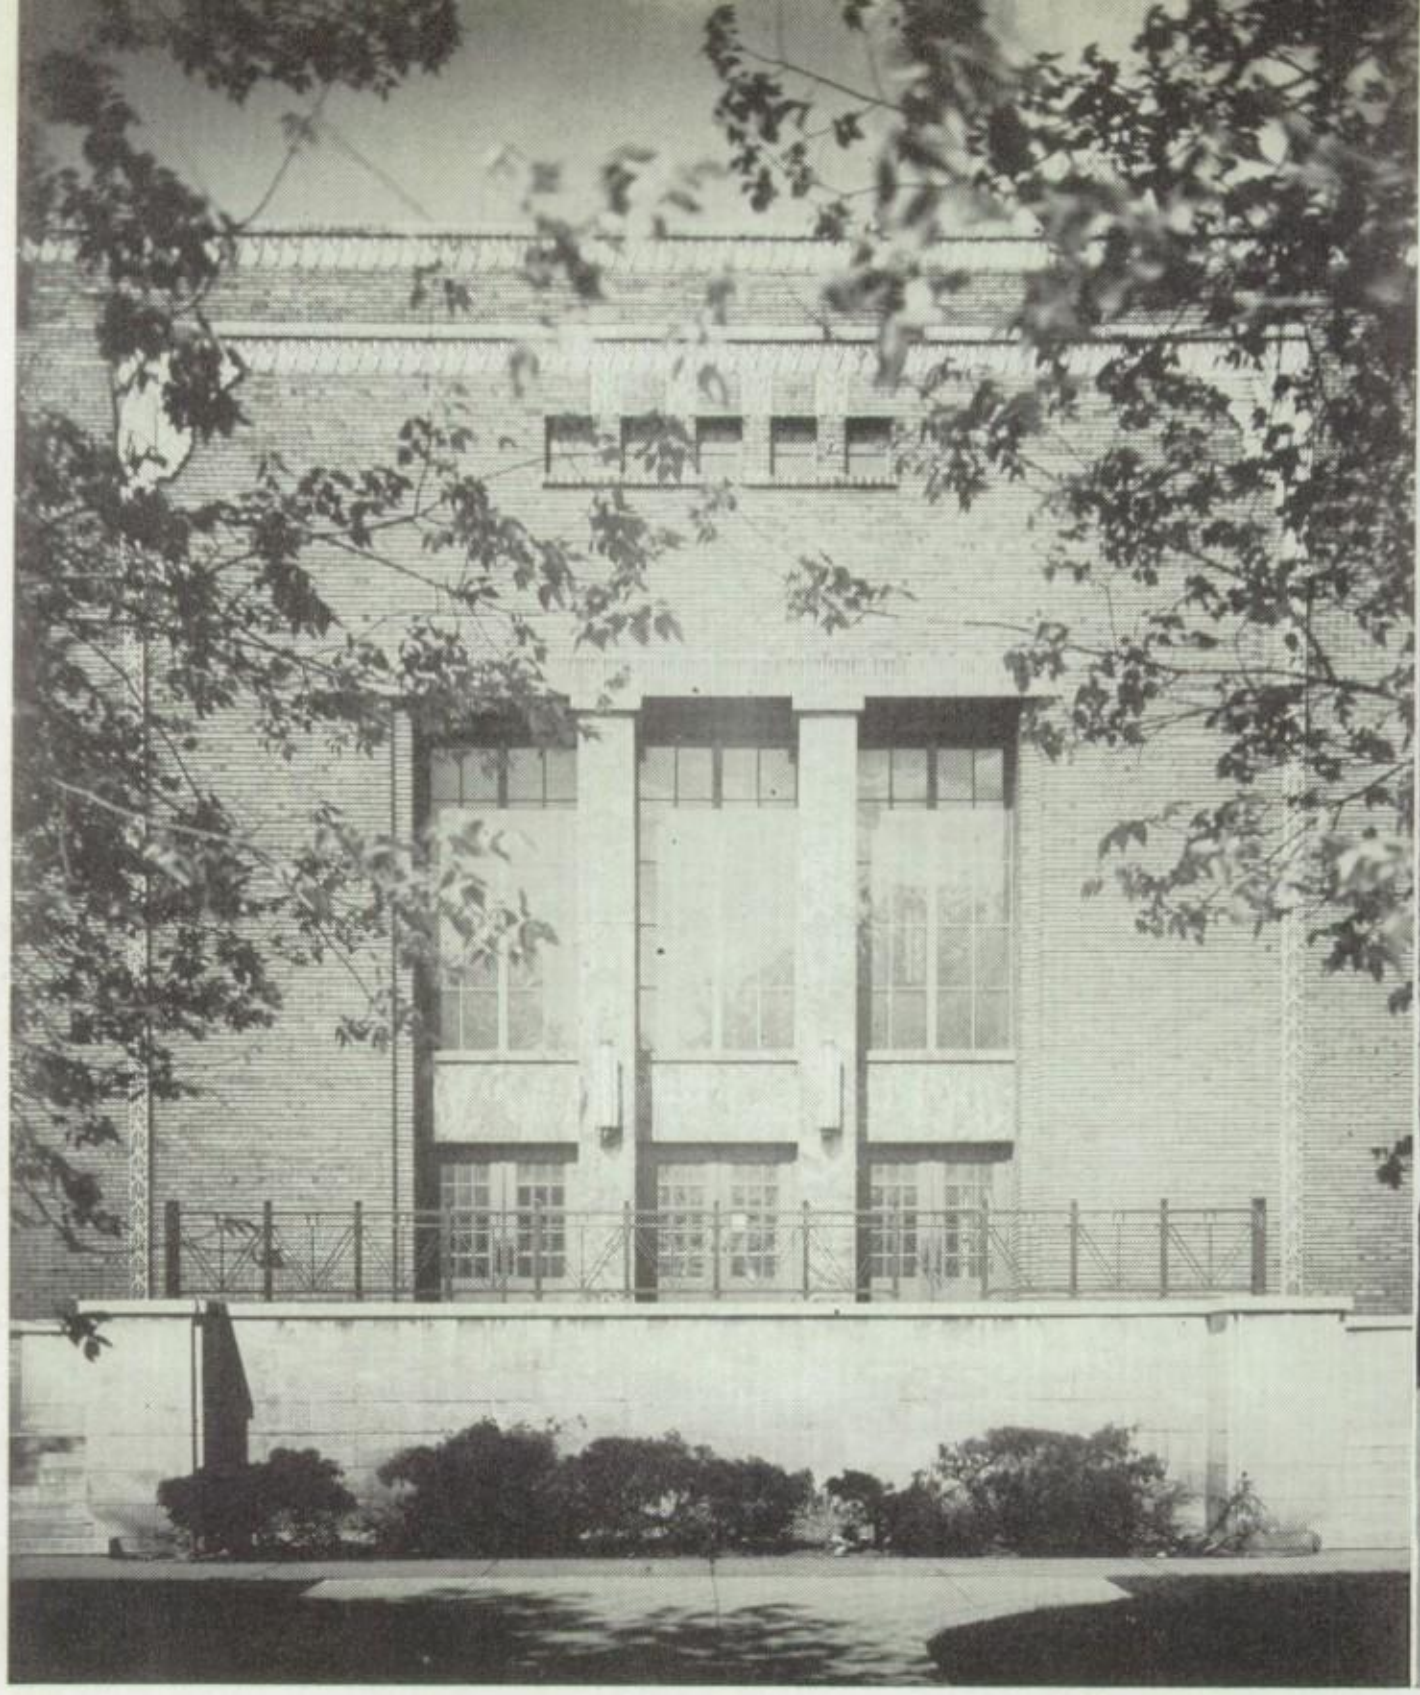
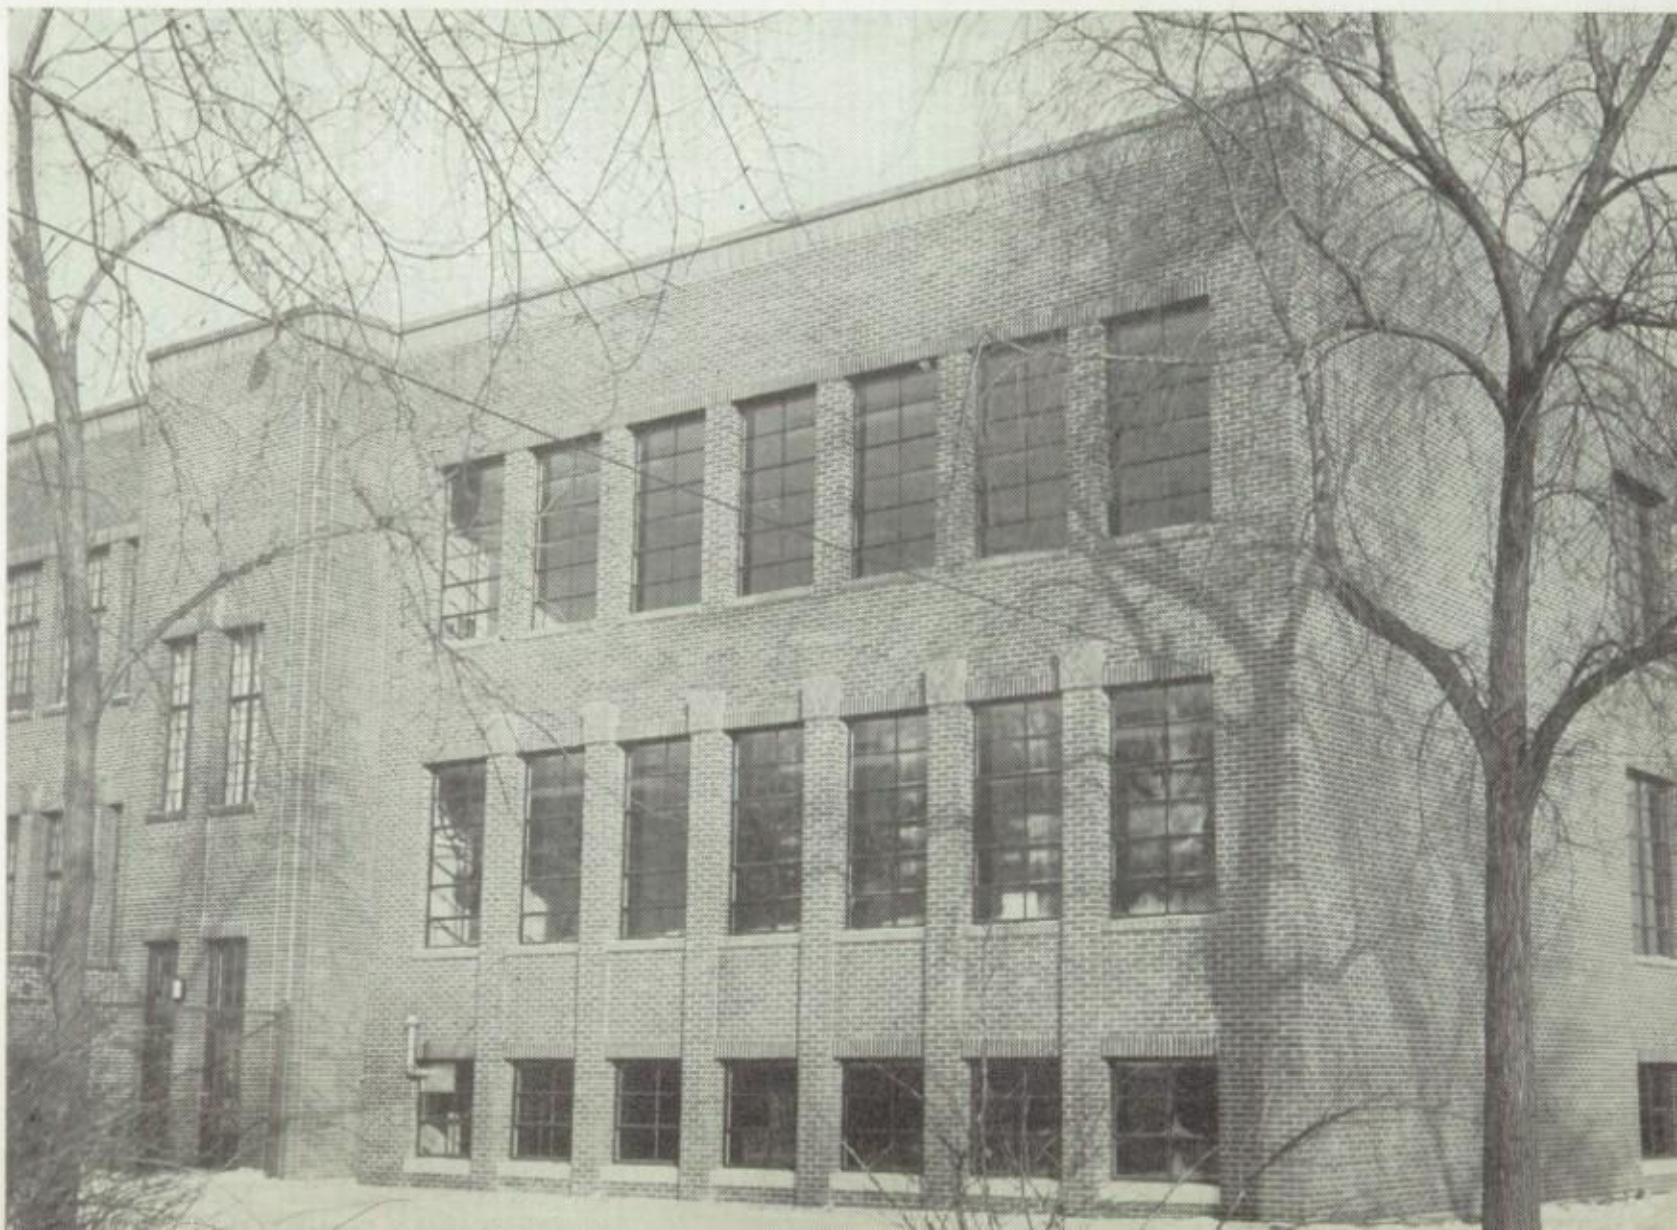
THORNTON FRACTIONAL TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL

Calumet City, Illinois





Thornton Fractional Township High School

A glance back at the school year of 1956-'57 will reveal experiences that combine to make the days spent at Thornton Fractional the best four years of our lives. Friendships have been formed which will never be forgotten. The knowledge that we have gained in the classrooms will accompany us as we go on to take our places in the world. The activities we took part in will help us to be better men and women of tomorrow.

Tucked back in a special place in our memories will be those things that have made T. F. so wonderful. There were those popular sock hops with the long stag lines and those memorable and beautiful dress-up dances. The over-crowded conditions made it necessary for classes to be held on a staggered system from 7:30 to 5:30. Our team always seemed to lose by just one or two points to the disappointment of the cheering spectators, but we were ever so proud of the champion wrestlers. As a finale, the seniors who had led the student body during the year solemnly took their places at graduation after the fun-filled moments of the Prom, the Sneak, and the special assemblies. Yes, we laughed and we cried at these events and many others that took place in the year of 1956-'57. Now the year is over, but these memories will always be ours . . .

Autumn . . .

School begins early in the fall and before long the year's schedule gets underway. The halls are crowded with confused freshmen who are confronted with such problems as opening stubborn lockers, finding rooms that seem to have vanished, and buying elevator tickets from upperclassmen. Every T.Fer anxiously awaits the arrival of the first social of the year where old friendships are renewed and new ones are formed. The football season starts with a burst of enthusiasm from eager spectators who gladly suffer the cold to cheer the Meteors on to victory. Midway in the season comes a very special night. It's Homecoming when T.F. alumni are welcomed back. The queen is crowned who reigns over the evening's festivities. Many hours of hard work are put out by students in preparation for the stage show and the concessions of the annual Carnival. Royalty also reigns when the Carnival king and queen are crowned at a breathtaking ceremony. Before long the brisk winds which blow the bright colored leaves of autumn give way to the colder ones which carry tiny snowflakes.

Watching the time go by . . . The Superintendent and School Boar

Mr. Jackson Kiester, serving his fourth year of administration, has given his time and energy to plan and execute a program to fit the overcrowded conditions with which the school has been confronted. The student body is truly indebted and grateful to Mr. Kiester for his unfailing devotion to their interests.

The school policies were faithfully directed by the members of the Board of Education. We deeply appreciate the efforts put forth by the school board that made this year possible.

Preparing the way . . . Deans and Assistant Deans

Mr. Aitkin Young acts as both the Assistant Superintendent and Dean of Boys. His wonderful assistance and helping hand make him a favorite at T. F.

Miss Katherine Brazzill, Dean of Girls is always ready to solve all problems. T.F. girls will remember her cheery smile and helpful guidance.

For the first year Mrs. Celia Segerman and Mr. Harold Schultz have acted as assistant Dean of Girls, assistant Dean of Boys respectively. They were always near to aid any T.F. student who needed them. Their assistance is appreciated by the entire student body.

Useful energy . . . Deans' Assistants

The busy girls found hustling around room 103 are the deans' assistants. They run errands for Miss Katherine Brazzill and Mr. Aitken Young and help to keep this office in good order. It is their responsibility to keep the school bulletin board up-to-date.

Setting the pace . . . Presidential Advisory Board

The Presidential Advisory Board, more commonly called P.A.B., serves as an advisory body for the school administration in addition to taking charge of many activities. This organization, composed of the presidents of all clubs and organizations, starts its work in the autumn with Homecoming and Carnival. Under the supervision of Miss Katherine Brazzill and Mrs. Celia Segerman, P.A.B. also takes care of such things as Charity Dance and Meet the Officers Night. This year the organization was instrumental in promoting a Code of Conduct campaign.

Ready, willing, and able . . . Super Salesmen

In the fall the ad-getters were ready to go out and sell advertisement space in the Thorntonian to businessmen in the area.

Willingly the Thorntonian salesmen talked many students into subscribing to the school paper, the Thorntonian.

Following the annual visit of Maxie, the magazine salesman went out and sold a large number of magazine subscriptions which help to pay for the publication of the Chronoscope.

Fashion your future...Nursing and Science Enthusiasts

Organized for the first time this fall, the Future Nurses of America Club strives to inform girls who are interested in medicine and nursing about their chosen career. Trips to different hospitals has been one of the club's major projects.

The Clinic Assistants aid the school nurse, Mrs. Helena Rosengard, in operating the school clinic.

Another newly organized club was the Science Club. Its purpose is to interest the members in the field of science and to encourage them to become scientists.

Autumn heroes . . .

Varsity Football Team

In the fall all attention was focused on football and our fighting gridmen. The Meteors' hard work won them a 3-6 record. This year two of our varsity men, Richard Metzcus and Ed Eggebrecht, made the All South Suburban Team. Ed was also awarded the Hammond Times Most Valuable Player Award.

Sophomore Football Team and J. V. Cheerleaders

A 2-6-1 record was compiled by Fractional's sophomore football team. They were prepared to take their places on the varsity team by the coach, Joe Sowinski.

Cheering the various underclassmen athletic teams on the victory were the girls on the Junior Varsity cheering squad. These spirited sophomores were always on hand to give support and encouragement and to promite school spirit.

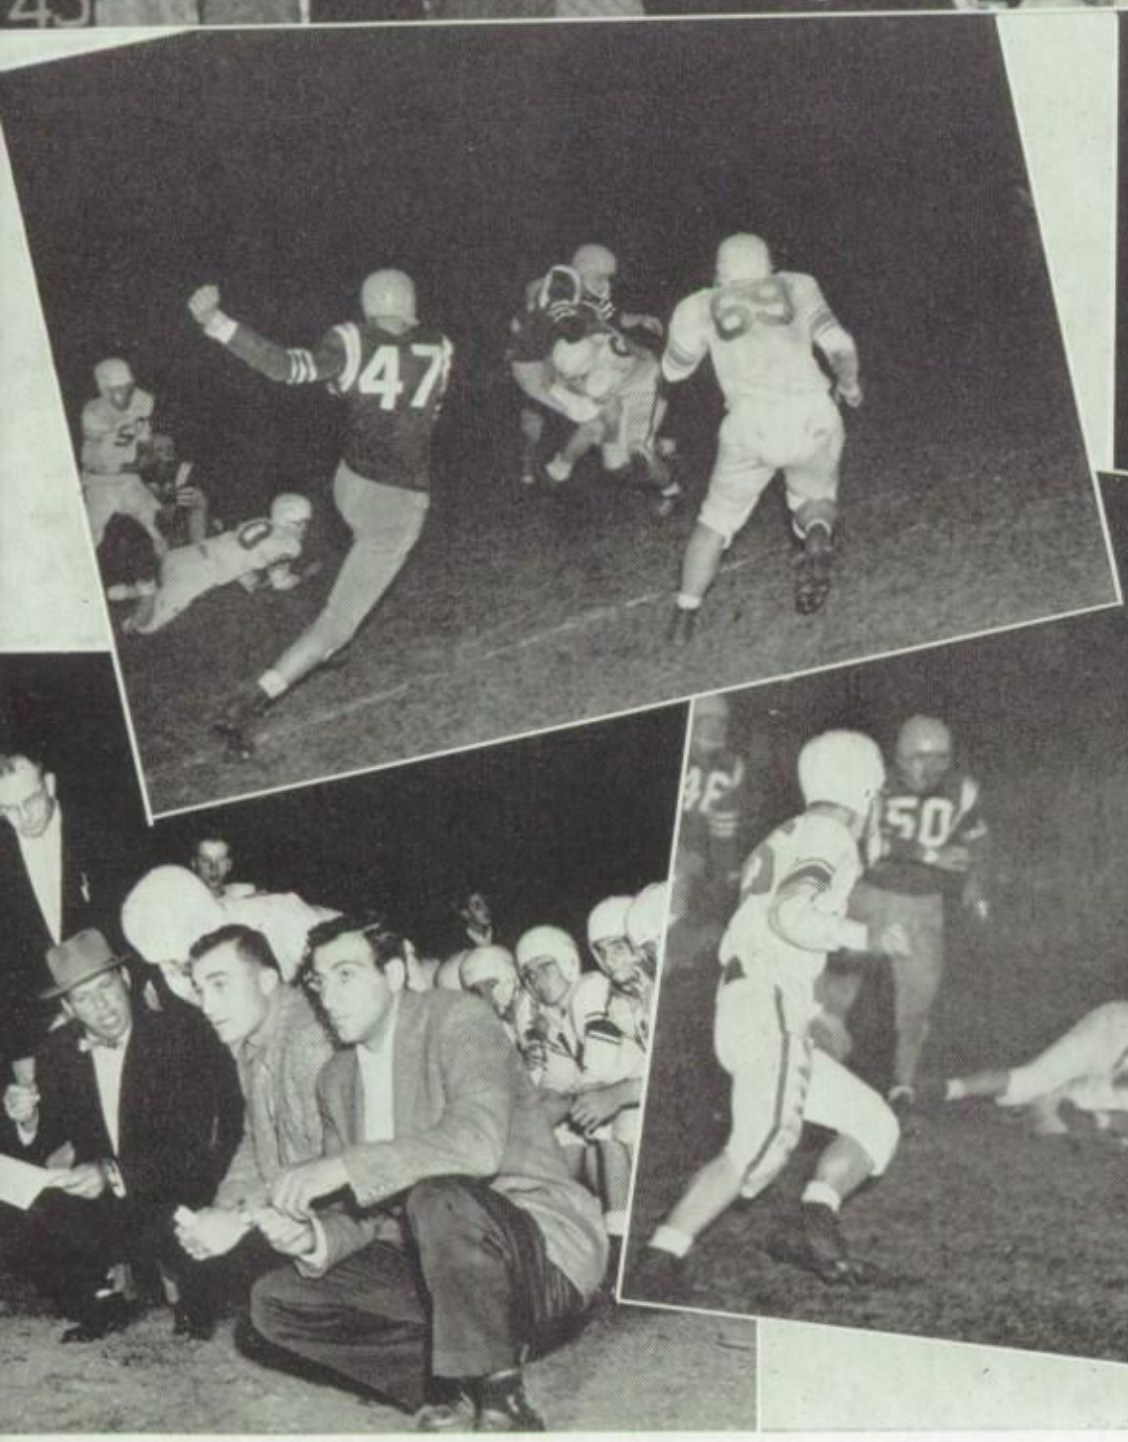
Memories are made of this . . . T. F. Homecoming

Gloria Biondi was crowned the 1957 Homecoming Queen by last year's queen, Yvonne Evans, at the breath-taking half-time ceremony. The members of the Homecoming Queen's court were Rita Merlo, Karen Klein, Yvonne Vargo, Kathy Doll, and Elizabeth Conde.



Moments to remember

The football season is hi-lighted each year by the Homecoming game. The rivals of the T.F. Meteors for this game were the gridmen from Kankakee. The crowded bleachers held an overflow of enthusiastic spectators who cheered the fighting team throughout the entire evening.

"Fight, team, fight!" . . . Varsity Cheerleaders

At every major athletic event the varsity cheerleaders led the cheering crowd in yells that promoted enthusiasm. These five girls were selected on their cheerleading ability and then spent the summer months practicing and organizing yells. They also attended a cheerleading clinic to learn new skills. The cheerleaders faithfully came to both home and out-of-town games to back the teams.

South of the border . . . Spanish Clubs

Those students who have enrolled in the Spanish I class automatically become members of El Club de Un Espanol. Every second Thursday these students meet during the regular Spanish period to conduct the business of the club.

Second year Spanish students become members of Spanish Club II. They also meet during class time and hold their business meetings.

Both of the Spanish clubs had Carnival concessions, held parties and sponsored a picnic.

A style that pleases . . . Terrapin Club

Beauty, grace, and rhythm plus the ability to swim well are the makings of an ideal Terrapin Club member. These girls practice ballet and various water skills every Thursday in order to prepare for their Carnival swim show. Also, in the fall, tryouts are held on the basis of a girl's ability to perform various strokes and dives.

Every year early in the fall the Debate Team assembles to prepare for schools in Indiana and Illinois. Their problem is to convince the judges that their side of the argument is best. The Debate Team, coached by Mrs. Robert Steckbeck used "Aid to the Farmers" as their topic this year.

Speech Team activities begin to take shape late in the fall when T. F.'s chapter of the National Forensic League starts to perfect its art. Later in the year the honors begin to pour in as the orators progress from district, sectional, and then all the way to the state contests. This year's team completely overpowered the district tournament by sending every one of its entrants to the sectionals with either a first, second, or third place. Roger Majak and Paul Black won state honors, second and third respectively.

In the limelight . . . Dramatics Club and N.T.S.

"The world is a stage and everyone in it has his own part to play." These are the guiding words of the students who participate in T. F.'s drama program. The major activities of this group begin with the Annual Fall Production, continue when they join the Speech Team for the Contest Play, and end with the newly introduced All-School Play.

Drama enthusiasts are now able to join the National Thespian Society, since the forming of Chapter 1672, thus adding national recognition to our school.

Row 2: Mr. Robert Phillips, Miss Mildred Pidgeon, Mrs. Celia Segerman, Mr. Edward Smagacz, Mrs. Carol Steckbeck, Miss Lilyan Wilson.

The English Department of T.F. is exceptionally well-balanced and expertly planned. The four year program includes special courses in speech, writing, and literature in addition to the regular English classes. Each student must successfully complete three years of English before he is eligible to graduate.

Mrs. Kent looks on as her students act out a literature selection.

Fine Arts Department

Row 1: Mr. Harold Christian, Director of Music; Miss Miriam Kidicek, Speech Correctionist; Mrs. Lois Lembcke, Art; Mrs. Verna Orich, Music.
Row 2: Mrs. Helena Rosengard, Nurse; Miss Mary Spelbring, Librarian; Miss Helen Temple, Art; Mr. Edmond Williams, Assistant Librarian; Mr. Jack Wonnell, Music.

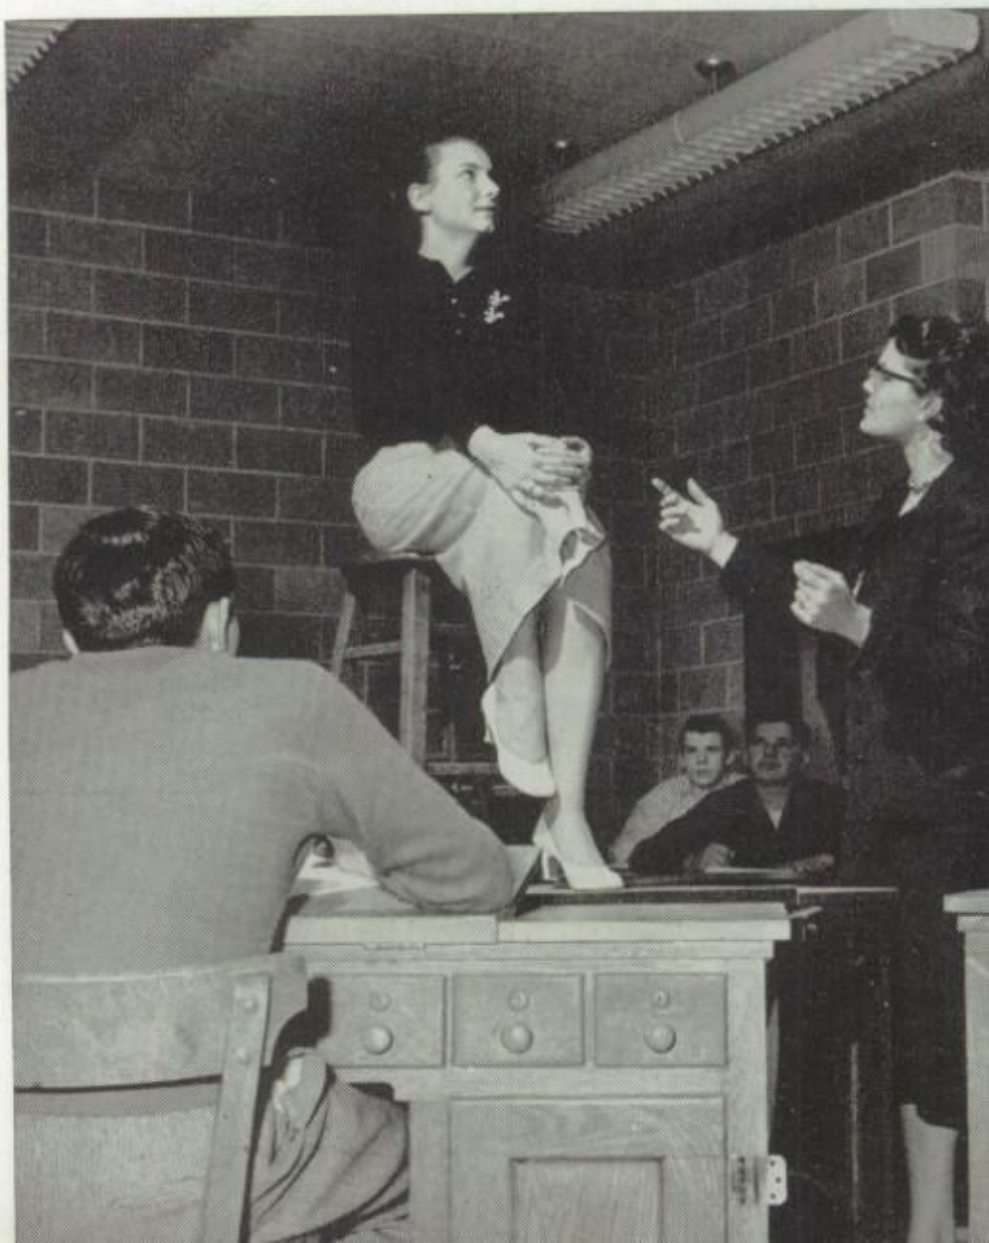
The Fine Arts Department includes three major divisions: music, speech corection, and art.

The music division consists of a band, several beginning bands, and various choral groups. Their purpose is to furnish music for school and civic affairs, to provide school spirit, and to teach students about music.

Correction classes are held for those students with a speech defect.

Lettering, landscapes, and figure drawing are a few of the specialties of the division of art.

The school library, consisting of approximately 7,750 volumes, and the school clinic are available at all times to serve the needs of the students.



Mrs. Lembcke proves to her students the position of the model is important to the artist.

Foreign Language and Homemaking Departments

Students are offered two year courses in both Latin and Spanish. Knowledge of the fundamentals of the grammar of each language and an insight into the culture of the Romans and our Spanish-speaking neighbors are taught in these courses.

Girls are taught the fundamentals of being good homemakers in the various home economics classes. After taking an exploratory course in the different aspects of homemaking during their freshman year, girls may advance themselves in the skills of sewing, home management, and cooking.

Mathematics Department

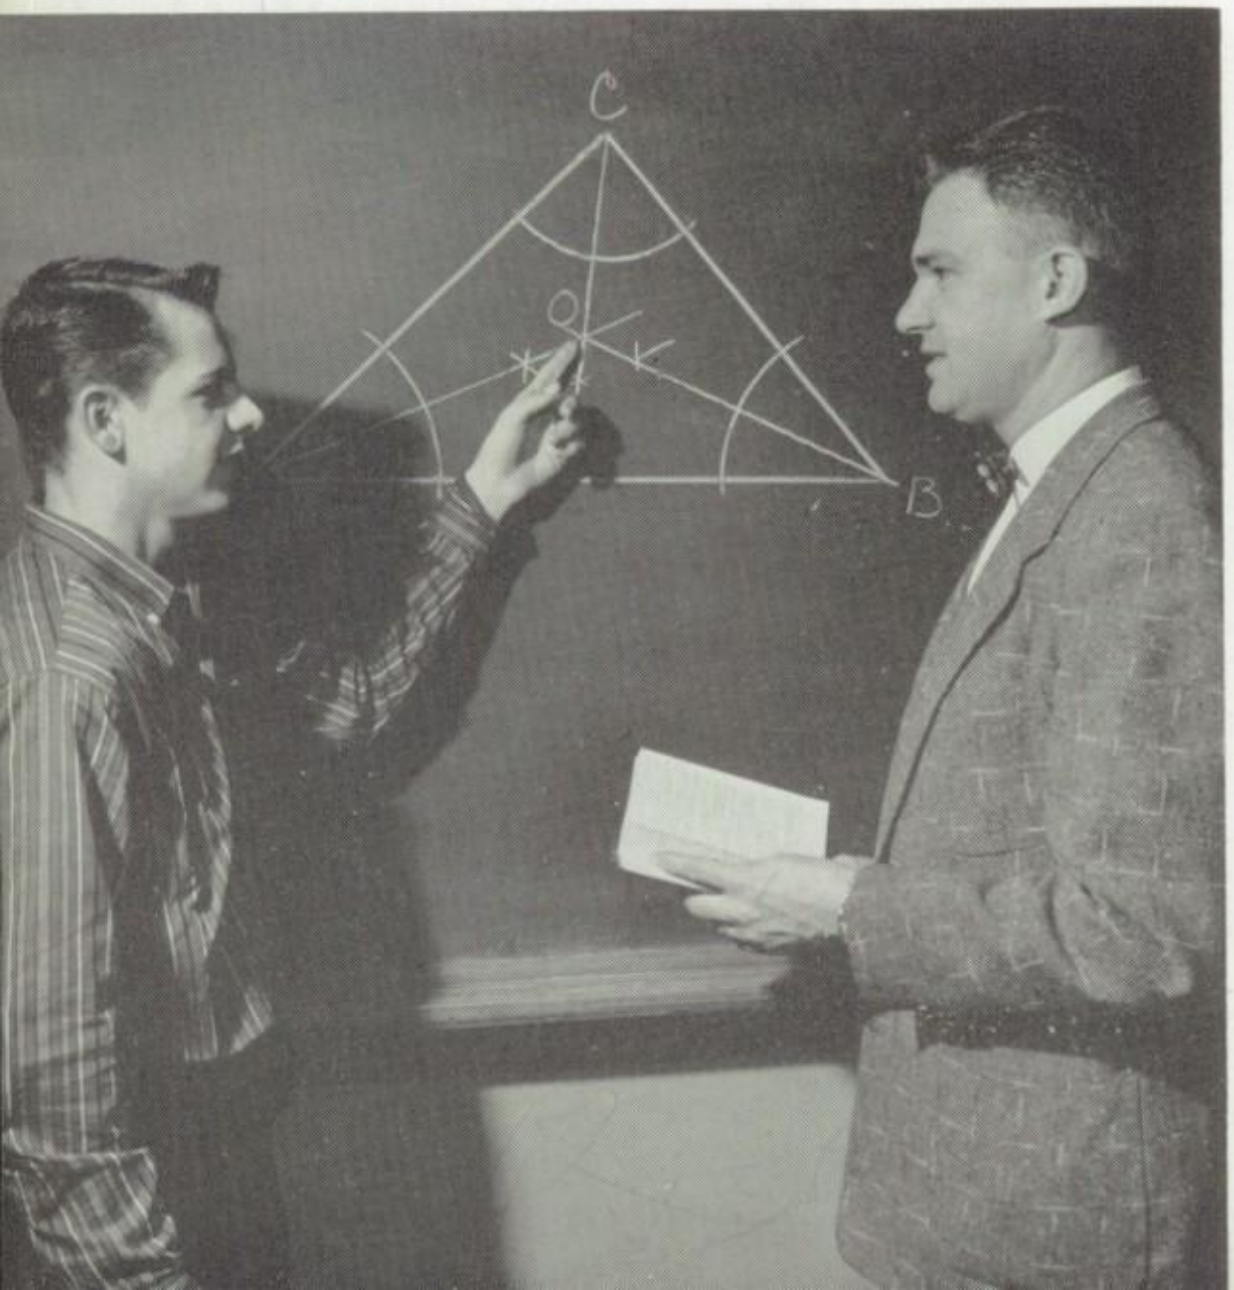
Mr. Schultz explains a geometry problem to one of his sophomore students.



A nine course program provides an excellent selection for those interested in mathematics. These courses range from general mathematics through algebra and geometry to trigonometry and solid geometry. Each class strives to teach the students the principles of that particular phase of mathematics.

Physical Education Department

Row 2: Mr. Robert Maxeiner, Athletic Director; Miss Mary Shemaitis, Mrs. Anna Mae Stevens.

Physical education activities are carried out by this department for every boy and girl in school. A modern swimming pool, two well-suited gymnasiums, and a spacious athletic field provide excellent facilities. Sports such as volleyball, basketball, and softball furnish healthful and invigorating exercise.

A serving technique in playing aerial darts is demonstrated by Mrs. Carlson.

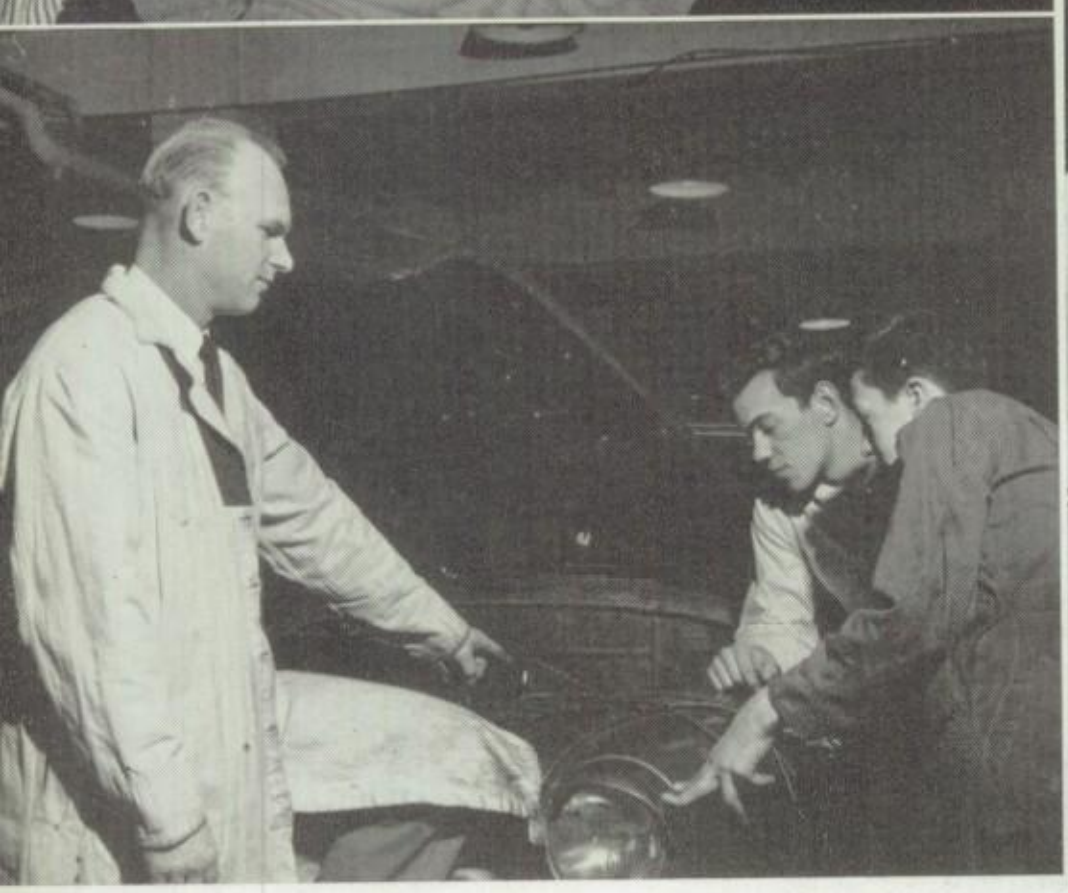
Row 4: Miss Adeline Jaacks, Mr. Bruce Miller.



Industrial Arts and Science Departments

The Industrial Arts Department is instrumental in preparing students for their future vocations in local industries. The science courses consist of: biology, chemistry, physics, and physical science. An insight into the scientific world is gained through a study of these courses.

Social Science Department

Left to right: Row 1: Mrs. Ruth Hale Canaga, Mr. William Chandler, Mr. John Flynn, Mr. Donald Keane, Mr. Francis Kelly, Mr. Herbert Peterson.
Row 2: Mr. Victor Schmidt, Mr. George Sobek, Mr. Joseph Sowinski, Miss Elizabeth Trout, Miss Janell Wenzil, Mrs. Elva Wilson.

Every student is required to study one year of social studies and two years of history, including American and World History. Additional courses in such things as geography and economics are also available. The aims of this department is to acquaint students with their cultural background and inspire them to take their place as good American citizens.

Several students and Mrs. Canaga discuss the situation of the United States today.

A dream come true . . . Carnival King and Queen

Reigning over the 1956 Carnival as king and queen were Richard Metzcus and Donna Moor. After a fanfare of trumpets the silence was broken by the long awaited announcement, and then the king and queen were crowned. Rich, captain of the football team, and Donna, a varsity cheerleader, were first nominated, with three other couples, by the members of the student body; and then once more the entire student body voted.

Autumn Attraction

T. F. buzzes with activity late in autumn as preparations are made for Carnival and its many concessions. All parts of the Carnival originate from work by the entire student body. A different activity is found in each concession. The clubs and organizations that sponsor the various concessions receive 30 per cent of their profits. The remaining money is used for the two school publications, school assemblies, and Boys' and Girls' Clubs.

"Desert Daze"...

"Desert Daze" was chosen as the theme for the 1956 annual Carnival stage show which was completely produced, written, and directed by the Presidential Advisory Board. The success of this show is credited to Michael O'Laughlin, who as chairman of P.A.B. was director of the show. But credit must also go to the members of P.A.B. who worked diligently and faithfully on this huge money-making affair.

Our 1956 Carnival

Heading the cast of characters for "Desert Daze" was Pete the desert vagabond and his mule Bridey. Pete becomes involved in a checker game and wins a map which is supposed to lead to gold. Little does Pete know that this is only a joke. In search for this make-believe gold, Pete faints from heat exhaustion. He is revived by the townspeople who lament over their deed. All then ends happily as Bridey the donkey really finds gold.

Winter . . .

Nature covers the earth with a white blanket of snow and the pages of the calendar are turned to those cherished winter months. Every girl keeps her fingers crossed especially at this time in hopes that a certain special fellow will say "yes" to her invitation to the Girls' Club Dance. The music department spices this season with the melodies of the Winter Concert. A wonderful spell is cast on these cold days when the students have a vacation from their studies to celebrate the birth of Christ and join in the accompanying festivities of the joyous Christmas season. It isn't long after the beginning of the new year that huge piles of books are faithfully carried home every night by students who are preparing for those first semester exams. Good grades are the goal of many who spend endless nights burning the "midnight oil." Enjoyment and excitement are added to the winter season by such sports as basketball, swimming, and wrestling. The bleachers are filled with fans who spiritedly cheer T.F.'s team whether they win or lose. Yes, the snow flakes of winter hold secrets of those treasured moments that make T.F. the school we love best of all.

Thornton Fractional takes a great deal of pride in its band under the direction of Mr. Harold Christian and Mr. Jack Wonnell. Scales and songs could be heard from the bandroom second period every day when the band members practiced. The band makes public appearances throughout the year at assemblies, concerts, athletic events, and civic affairs.

Music, maestro . . . Intermediate Band and Band Officers

Behind the scenes the band officers take care of necessary arrangements and preparations to run this organization smoothly.

Just a step behind the "big" band is the Intermediate Band. The members of this organization are trained so that they will be able to advance to the regular band in the fall. This year for the first time this band took part in a concert performance.

Daily service . . . Library Club

Thornton Fractional's library student assistants may be seen carrying on the duties of librarian. These are the people who devote their time and efforts into making the library a neat and efficient part of school life.

Library Club, like most organizations at T. F., sponsors a social and has a concession at the Carnival. A Christmas party is held to provide mid-year enjoyment for the assistants, and the year is climaxed by a banquet at which awards are presented and officers are installed.

F.T.A. and Ticket Salesmen

The Future Teachers of America is another one of the newcomers to the list of clubs at Thornton Fractional. It gives to students interested in becoming teachers, an insight into their chosen profession. The members had a chance to gain experience in working with children when they assisted at a local kindergarten.

Before every football or basketball game girls are found in the halls trying earnestly to sell tickets to these events. The ticket salesmen develop their salesmanship ability by trying to convince students to back their teams and attend the games.

It won't be long now . . . Junior Class

Time flies by so quickly that it doesn't take long before the climax of high school life is reached. The Junior Class soon learns how to accept responsibility and become the leaders of tomorrow. They must take their places in the school and meet the challenges that lie before them.

The Junior Class Officers lead the way for their class. Throughout the year they raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom, which is their special activity. As officers they also plan the all important Junior-Senior Sneak. And As Time Goes By they are constantly reminded that it won't be long before they are seniors.

Winter stand-outs . . . Varsity Basketball Team

The varsity basketball team invigorated the winter sports schedule by keeping the crowd in hopeful anxiety with its close scoring games. The team turned in a season's record of 6 wins and 17 losses. Mr. Joe Jepsen will replace Mr. Robert Maxeiner, this year's coach, who will become athletic dircetor for both this school and the new wing in Lansing.

Help along the way . . .

Counselors and Assistants

The counselors solve many student problems and are always available when advice is needed and consequently solve many student problems. Each class has a counselor who aids the student in selecting a course of study which will fit his plans for a career or college. A number of valuable scholarships were secured this year for seniors planning to continue their education through the efforts of Mr. Victor Schmidt, director of guidance.

Spring . . .

Time goes by so quickly, and it isn't long before the last season approaches. As the days grow longer and the weather becomes warmer, the lilacs that surround the school building begin to bloom adding beauty to the atmosphere. This is the season when a young man's fancy turns to baseball or track. Dad becomes king and Mom is made queen at the parties planned in their honor by various T.F. clubs. The air is filled with anticipation as every organization holds its elections and students take their places as officers. Many clubs sponsor spring banquets and present awards and honors to their outstanding members. "The play's the thing" when students become stars in the all school play, while music is supreme at the Spring Concert. Dreams fill the minds of upperclassmen when they make plans for that night of nights, the Junior-Senior Prom. But the billowy formals are exchanged for bathing suits as the privileged juniors and seniors skip school for the "Sneak." All too soon the school year ends and both the good times and the heartbreaks are gone. Many eyes are wet with tears as the seniors don their caps and gowns and receive their coveted diplomas. Now nothing is left but the memories which will ever be cherished As Time Goes By.

Spring attraction . . . Varsity and Frosh-Soph Baseball Tea

It is said that in the spring a young man's thoughts turn to baseball, and this saying holds true for many of the males of T. F. The varsity team, coached by Mr. George Sobek, was composed for the most part of underclassmen. They hustled their way to 3-7 record.

An impressive 5-3 record was compiled by the frosh-soph baseball team. Coach Sam Piazza instructed his team, preparing them for varsity positions.

The star of this year's All School Play was a larg white pooka rabbit, Harvey, who was seen only b Elwood P. Dowd, his best friend. Elwood's sociall ambitious sister Veta tries to commit Elwood, sinc Harvey and Elwood are interfering with her socia plans.

Highlighting the hilarious play was the event whe Veta goes to the sanitarium to arrange for Elwood' commitment, and is mistaken for the patient, thu being given treatment in a hydro-tub and settin Elwood free.

The end result was two evenings of rib-ticklin entertainment.

Music that pleases . . .

The Freshman Mixed Chorus consists of both freshman girls and boys who are interested in singing and can carry a tune. Under the direction of Mrs. Verna Orich, they climaxed their year by singing in the annual Spring Concert. The experience gained in this course will enable the members to advance to another choral group.

Freshman Chorus and Accompanists

Many long and hard hours of practice are spent by the various chorus accompanists. These girls use their talents to serve the school and are always on hand when a choral group is asked to perform. The accompanists are selected by the music directors to play for a particular organization.

Perfect harmony . . .

Throughout the year, twelve girls, known as the Double Sextette, blend their voices in three-part harmony to entertain at both school and community affairs. The girls are chosen each spring on their ability to read music and to blend their voices.

Under the direction of Mr. Jack Wonnell, the Advanced Chorus, composed of upperclassmen, harmonized at a number of events during the school year. In the spring their musical activities were highlighted by their appearance at the graduation exercises.

A popular choral group at many functions is the Meistersingers, directed by Mrs. Verna Orich. These boys run a concession at the carnival in addition to making public appearances.

Track and field is considered, by most coaches, to be a conditioner and builder for the other sports. The Meteor trackmen were coached this year by Mr. William Chandler and Mr. Donald Keane.

This year T. F. sponsored a grade school meet to stimulate interest for the incoming freshmen in track and field events.

Knowledge through experience . . . Commercial Club

The Commercial Club is composed of senior girls who plan to become secretaries and have devoted two years to developing the skills of shorthand and typing. The girls are given an opportunity to become acquainted with office machines under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Kessinger. Through the sale of taffy apples, the club raises money.

Helping hands... Stooges

The stooges are the hard working assistants of Miss Adeline Jaacks, T. F.'s financial advisor. These girls devote at least one hour of their school day to help Miss Jaacks by doing such tasks as selling tickets, distributing the school publications, and taking care of money matters. The stooges can also be seen working at every school social and athletic event.

Superb in sports . . . Derby Winner

Brian Schultz was the winner of the coveted black derby, awarded to the boy who promises to be the most outstanding athlete during his senior year. Brian's athletic honors during his senior year included winning a varsity letter in football, qualifying for the state wrestling finals, and being captain of the track team. He was also Senior Class president, recipient of an appointment to West Point, and co-winner with Bill Seibert of the Key of Knowledge.

Always on the job... Girls' Club

Girls' Club is probably the most active club in T.F. Its purpose is to promote a spirit of democracy, friendship, and service among all girls in school. The spring is the busiest time for Girls' Club, for this is when the major activities such as Dads' Night, Bow Day, elections, and the Mother-Daughter party take place. Among the other functions of this club are dressing dolls for orphans, selling candy at athletic events, and directing the Big and Little Sister program. Climaxing this year's program, Miss Anna Schmidt, who has served for 18 years as Girls' Club sponsor, announced her retirement from that position. Beverly Resan was presented with the activity cup for being the most active girl in the club, and Carolyn Layton was awarded the scholarship pin.

Doing their share . . . Boys' Club

The Boys' Club members are always on hand to do their part to help the school. This club, under the direction of Mr. Harvey Lambka, its sponsor, and Mr. Floyd Olsen, its co-sponsor, promotes friendliness, leadership, and service among the boys of T. F. The board members lead the club in planning its activities, which include a Carnival concession, dances after many athletic events, a refreshment stand at games, and the annual Boys' Club dance. (At the Father-Son party, held in May, John Peters received the music award; Brian Schultz, the athletic award; and both Bill Seibert and Brian Schultz, the scholarship award.)

Boys winning two minor letters in one sport or one major monogram are eligible to join Monogram Club. These boys serve the school by ushering at school activities and lending a helping hand when assistance is needed. They also promote good sportsmanship among athletes.

Eyes on the future . . . T. F. South

Thornton Fractional's addition, T. F. South, will go into operation for the second semester of the 1957-'58 school year. It's family will consist of 950 students living in the area south of Route 6, east of Torrence Avenue, and west of State Line. All subjects offered in the present school will be available and one graduation for both schools will take place in June. Students will finally leave the split schedule behind and resume a normal pace once again.

The ground was broken for the new building late in 1955, and construction began soon after.

Thornton Fractional South is located in Lansing at 186th Street and Burnham Avenue.

Through the Thornton Fractional intramural program all students are able to participate in athletics. The program is comprised of basketball, wrestling, swim, table tennis, and horseshoes. Winners in all events are presented awards by Mr. Adolph Gentile, intramural director. Competition begins early in the school year and continues until the latter part of May.

Perennial favorites . . .

Girls are given a chance to develop their athletic ability and earn school letters in the Girls' Athletic Club, better known as G.A.C. Five sports: volleyball, captain basketball, basketball, swim, and baseball are conducted at different intervals throughout the year. Class teams are chosen on the basis of sportsmanship and ability and then intramural tournaments are held. In addition to earning the required amount of points, a girl must also complete a number of hikes and keep twelve weeks of training rules in order to be eligible for either a minor or major letter.

Maids of Might

The tournament games are, undoubtedly, the most exciting phase of G.A.C. Every girl plays with all her might so that her team will be victorious. This year the seniors won three out of four tournaments and thus captured the activity cup.

Miss Adeline Jaacks, the club's sponsor for 29 years, announced that she was retiring as sponsor and that Mrs. Dorothy Carlson, the co-sponsor, would assume her position. Marcia Skinner was named the 1957 Senior Honor Athlete.

Always there... Our publications' sponsors

Miss Mildred Pidgeon devoted much of her time and effort to directing the publication of the Chronoscope and the Thorntonian. She was always there to advise and aid us in our work. As editors we would like to express our sincere gratitude and appreciation to Miss Pidgeon for her guidance throughout the year.

The finances of both the Chronoscope and the Thorntonian are handled by Miss Adeline Jaacks, our financial advisor. She takes care of the advertisements for the publications and also their sale and distribution. We, the authors of the publications, would like to say an extra special "thank you" to Miss Jaacks for her faithful assistance.

Writing with a purpose...Guide Book Staff and "Cubs"

Every spring a staff of juniors is selected to compile the T. F. Guide Book. This handy manual explains the workings of the school, the curriculum, and the various clubs and organizations.

Journalism Class is the place where future Chronoscope and Thorntonian staff members are trained. The spring is an important season for the "cubs" because this is when they publish the Cub Edition of the school newspaper and appointments are made to next year's staffs.

Reporting the time . . .

Thorntonian Staff

The Thorntonian, T. F.'s school newspaper, is published twice a month by the students under Iris's able and willing guidance. School news, sports, interesting features, helpful editorials, and witty jokes were enjoyed by students wanting to keep up on the latest around school, but little did they realize all the hours that were spent in searching for scoops, laying-out the pages, taking pictures, and meeting deadlines.

Chronoscope Staff

The yearbook is actually the pictorial review of the school year, but to the editors and staff members it means a great deal more. The book itself is filled with many memories for us. Beckie's worries and faithfulness, and the hard work of the staff combined to make this yearbook possible. As TIME GOES BY, our theme, will always be dear to us.

Forty-one outstanding members of the 1957 senior class were installed into the National Honor Society at a solemn ceremony held on April 29. These students, who were elected to the society by all faculty members on the basis of their scholarship, leadership, character, and service, silently pledged themselves to uphold the standards of the society and received their coveted pins as a part of the candle-lighting service.

In 1928 Mrs. Ruth Hale Canaga became the first sponsor of this society. She sponsored it once more this year, as she has done every year since it was introduced.

A goal is reached . . . Senior Class and Officers

The four years of high school are gone. Time seemed to fly by as the whirl of studies and activities was constantly in motion. The seniors will remember the friendships so dear, the socials and dances so wonderful, and the games so thrilling. But most of all the seniors will remember Thornton Fractional and the atmosphere that makes it the place we all love so much. Graduation brings a new way of life which has been prepared for within the walls of this school.

The senior class was led by four capable officers who prepared the way for the entire class. It was their duty to raise money by selling cokes at games and operating a Carnival concession, produce the senior assemblies, and plan graduation and the necessary class committees. Followed by the members of the class, they made the Class of 1957 one to be long remembered As Time Goes By.

Celebrating Our 60th Year

As Time Goes By

we never saw . . .

A social without a stag line

Enough assemblies

School without teachers

Higher water fountains

Long enough weekends

Short enough classes

Television in the library

Hour long lunch periods

Warm water in the pool

A week without homework

A phonograph in the cafeteria

A fire drill on a warm day

As Time Goes By

we'll still have . . .

Mike De Joris' car

Robecca and Roberta Morse's alikeness

Virginia Valiska's sense of humor

Bernadine Zdrojeski's voice

Joann Reeves dependability

John Schneider's dancing ability

Gail Emlund's art ability

Barbara Glesge's helpfulness

John Samaide's good citizenship

Gerry Troy's wise cracks

Mary Hertenstein's scholarship

Lenore Lipske's diets

George Rakin's basketball ability

Ray Berwanger's football ability

Carol Wright's devilishness

Rita Barkey's friendliness

A new Carnival king and queen

As Time Goes By

we wonder . . .

If Sonia Cabala will be a good nurse

If Marcia Skinner will be a physical education teacher

Why we didn't study

If "Mert" Hecht will be an efficient secretary

If the Eisenhutt twins know which is which

Why Jim Schultz's hair is so curly

If Jim Kelly will become another Fred Astaire

If Julie Komorowski will ever grow

How Jimmy Karr sinks those long shots

If Judy Meissler and Phyllis Brnicky will ever cease to be friends

As Time Goes By
we hope . . .

Nancy Montag decides what she wants to be

Jean Miller gets a bookkeeper's job

John Peters organizes his own band

Shirley Nadai keeps her winning smile.

The new school gets finished on time

Mary Alice Dirst becomes an actress

Sally Newcomb and Dave Gifford stick together

Marlene Walters writes a book

Gloria Jaworski never changes

Nancy Langbeen succeeds as a nurse.

As Time Goes By

you shall know . . .

If it's peppy it's Luella Jewett

If it's got red hair it's Tom Drangmeister

If it's telling jokes it's Sandy Fantin

If it's talking it's Phyllis Fry

If it's blushing it's Norm Langhoff

If it's quiet it's Debbie Mauger

If it's laughing it's Ellen Krause

If it's dribbling it's Dennis Sidkey

If it's driving a Cadillac it's Rich Sulewski

If it's polite it's Gary Mickey

As Time Goes By you haven't lived . . .

If you haven't read Charmaine Bolda's feature stories

Unless you've seen Ann Lavery's souvenirs

If you haven't seen Phyllis Okrey's hair styles

If you haven't seen Julie Wojciechowski act

Unless you've had a nickname like "Pinky" or "Perky"

If you haven't heard about Carolyn Layton's typing speed

Unless you've had Mrs. Canaga for American History

If you haven't written a research paper

Unless you've seen Wayne Seme swim

If you haven't heard about Lois Weitkamp's sewing ability

As Time Goes By we know . . .

Wayne Sprague will be a success

Eddie Eggebrecht will continue to love football

Russ Gullickson will never run out of jokes

Judy Denton's dreams will come true

Dave Tavarczky will always be called "Tubby"

Clementine DeRosa will always be called "Teenie"

Scott Hertenstein will always acquire good grades

Margie Gorecki will never cease being helpful

Adrienne Johnson will always have beautiful clothes

Laurie Sattler's personality will never change
